November 2009

G'Day Guys and Girls,

How insane is it that it's November already?!?! The silly season is almost upon us, which can only mean one thing... that's right peeps, it's almost Prezzo time, but more on that in a minute.

Unfortunately, the east coast of Oz hasn't been producing the usual perfection we're used to and strangely we've had less than perfect waves... I know, very odd, but even the most wave rich parts of the planet don't turn it on all the time, and it seems as though it's Wambi's turn to be a bit ordinary... don't worry, I'm sure it'll be 8 feet, sunny n offshore again before we know it...

Latest WEB results

Those of you who follow the WCT will know the title is going to be decided in the gladiator pit that is Hawaii's Banzai Pipeline... Two best mates and ferocious competitors, Parko and Mick (Eugene) Fanning are neck and neck for the world title and the surfing world is definitely holding it's breath to see who's going to be holding up who's decapitated noggin at the end of the battle...

LIKEWISE, here at Wambi, we've already started going blue in the face, in the wait to see how the November comp turns out... things are very close in almost all divisions and it'll be interesting to see to who the Emperor gives the thumbs up and who gets unceremoniously feed to the lions...!

Latest results below... for those of you that like numbers, grab your calculators...

KINGS OF THE COAST – Saturday 21 November – WEB needs YOU!!!

It's back! Kings of the Coast..., and the WEB team needs you to come along and support in defeating all those that stand in our way.

Last year at North Shelly we had only a few supporters, which is a totally piss poor effort eh...

COME ON WAMBI, seriously, get your act together and come along on 21 November to support your team... it's an awesome day, made all the better by the amount of supporters the clubs bring along to cheer their team... it makes for some healthy interclub rivalry and it's a laugh baggin out the other clubs..., we know you want to, so DO IT!!!

The WEB team has been chosen based on the results so far this year... This means we'll have WEB's keenest surfers blowing up in the name of Wambi... YEW!!!

Golf Day round up

How SIK was it??? It rained all week right up until early Golf Day morning... but in the same way as Moses apparently parted the Red Sea to lead his Israelite pals to the promised land, so to did Huey part the clouds to let the 5th Annual WEB Golf Day bask in partly sunny conditions. This lasted until everyone got back to the clubhouse... by the time the buffet dinner arrived it began to rain again, but who cared, everyone was enjoying as many minute steaks and schooners as was humanly possible... until next year!

WEB Prezzo

Yes, the bit you've been waiting for since the first sentence of this newsletter... The Prezzo is Friday 11 December 2009 at the mighty Breakers Country Club... Doors open at 5pm and the Trophy Prezzo is at 7pm... how GOOD is it..!

Some of this year's entertainment will be the epic and I'm sure very confronting slideshow that is written, directed and stars our very own BT and Symo, 'The Trombone Collective'... these lads can't wait to show everyone what they've been up in their free time... should be, ummm, interesting.

Single Fin Comp

The second annual Single Fin Comp is Saturday 19 December, so grab your best old stick with one fin and join everyone as they draw lines that haven't been seen since 1980... It's an awesome day that determines who actually are the best surfers in WEB. Entry $10... 8am start... NO LEGGIES..!

WEB Sign-on
