MOvember Comp 8 – Sunday 20 November

WARNING!!! Don't listen to gossip, the November Comp 8 is still Sunday 20 November, so whack it in your iPhone app that replicates that amazing time management invention of the 80s, the FiloFax... so quaintly analogue on digi-style... but WEB digress.

The other big news about Comp 8 is that it's an official MOvember fundraising activity, so everyone start cultivating that filthy little bit of carpet on your top lip and all the proceeds will go to men's cancer research. It'll be a gold coin donation or more if you like... You can also pre-donate at Symo's Surf Shop or go to <http://mobro.co/WEB2260> ... DOIT

There's prizes for best handlebars, best porn mo, Tom Selleck award etc. (even though we know that one's going to The Fin Specialist... hands down).

EVERYONE MUST HAVE A MO to surf in this comp... even the grommets..!

We are also going to attempt a whole club photo, so it'd tre-cool if everyone can turn up in their WEB tee to be immortalized on digital celluloid forevs... WITH MOs... YEW

KINGS OF THE COAST 2011

Kings of The Coast will be Saturday 19 November at Macs... LOCK IT UKEN IN..! Yes, Yes I heard you say, WEB got so creepy in the water last year that we nearly took it out, but still finished an awesomely respectful 3rd place... HOW GOOD WAS IT... no need to answer, that was one o those rhetorical question thingies.

The Water Team is finalised, the Tent Team is everyone else and WEB has a bus booked to take all of us there and bring us back after the festivities at Macs Surf Club for the super low fee of 20 fun tickets each, BARGAIN..!

So who's carrying all of WEB's hopes and aspirations for a massive win..? Well this year Coach Gallen is keeping it under wraps until the last minute when he will unleash THE WATER TEAM on those unsuspecting MoFos from across the Coast... nothing like the element of surprise..!

HOWEVS, we can let you in on the make up of this year's TENT TEAM as it's been carefully hand picked to include everyone else in WEB to come along and get really loose – as always though, if your under 18 then it's only highly caffeinated energy drinks and hyperventilating into a paper bag, YEW.

That's the plan, let's DOIT.

THE DETAILS ARE:

- First bus leaves Wambi carpark at 7.15am so we can set up at Macs ready to dominate HRRRR then it'll head back to Wambi to grab the rest of yuzzzaaa..!

Golf Day 2011 – NOT

Single Fin Soul Classic and WEB Prezzo 2011

Well it's summer again, so that means the fourth annual Single Fin Soul Classic is on Saturday 10 December. As you know, it's the most important date on Wambi's comp calendar as it's the proving ground for who's the best at Wambi... YEAYAAA.

As usual it's an 8am start for the comp, entry fee is 10 bones (NO LEGGIES) then presentation of prizes and getting creepy in Lett Park... THEN, straight after the Single Fin prezzo shenanigans it's over the hill to the Cunge for the end of year PREZZO to see who takes out the Wamberal Grom Series (WGS), the Wamberal Qualifying Series (WQS), the Wamberal Championship Tour (WCT) and the Wamberal Trophy Hunters (WTH).

Although last year's international acts were a massive success, this year we're keeping the entertainment closer to home with some surprise local acts and the newly formed DJ outfit, The LynchMob..! Gunna be siiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiiik..!

Doors open at 5.30pm and the trophy ceremony is at 6.30pm... then the entertainment starts as outlined above... GET LOOSE... YEW..!

Random Spot

What about this handsome devil?!?! Just like Mick Fanning's got an alter ego called Eugene, WEB's very own Andrew Symington's got one called Derrick... and as you can see to the right, he's our next candidate for Lees Model Management... Latte, Lingo, you've been warned... Obviously Will's got nothing to worry about though.

See ya on Sunday 20 MOverber for Comp 8..!

AND REMEMBER... SUPPORT OUR SPONSORS!!! That's them below... YEW
